Course Lecturer

I am Dr Umm Abdillāh (Naheed Anwar). BA Hons., MA, PhD.
Awarding Institute: University of Roehampton, 2021. My website is ResearchingSalafism.com, please pay it a visit.

The Course

The Living as a Muslim in Today's World course has been designed to develop students' knowledge and understanding of Islam in historical and contemporary contexts through a range of key topics and the texts of both the Qur'an and Hadith. It will enable students to develop their skills of analysis and interpretation in the context of questions and issues that affect Islam and the lives of Muslims today.

This is a basic level course suitable for female students of age 9+ and especially those new to Islam, however recently the course has also been made available to females of other age groups (upon request). It may also serve as an excellent foundation for those who wish to take the IGCSE or A level Islamic Studies course in the future.

The course content has been created by Shaikh Abu Khadeejah ‘Abdul-Wāhid and includes 100+ lessons with new content being added weekly—and all praise is for Allāh, may Allāh bless it.

This 60-minute class will take place on the weekend (Saturday 1pm BST, UK time)¹ to benefit those busy at school, college, or work during the week. The time of the lesson has been set to suit as many time zones as possible, inshā’-Allāh.

The cost of each weekly class is £12.50. This includes marked homework for those who choose to do it (it is not mandatory). Two or more pupils from the immediate family: £10 each.

¹ Timings may be altered at the lecturer’s discretion with one month’s notice. Note that a class may be cancelled with 24-hour notice (and less in cases of emergency) without any cost to pupils—and the lesson made up over subsequent weeks.

Many of you may be wondering what topics will be covered during the course. Below is a small glimpse of some of the 100+ topics that will be covered, inshā'-Allāh:

- Personal aspects of the Prophet's (ﷺ) life
- The Revelation of the Qur'an
- The Prophethood of Muhammad (ﷺ)
- Opposition and Hijrah
- The Sunnah of the Prophet (ﷺ)
- Teachings and example of the Prophet (ﷺ) on specific issues of justice and equality
- The Prophet (ﷺ) as leader
- Battles fought by the Prophet
- The Prophet's (ﷺ) final acts and his achievements
- Introduction to Islam
- Allah, The Lord of Creation, The Unique
- The Risalah (Message)
- Belief in the Messengers
- Belief in the Revealed Books
- Belief in the Pre-Decree: Life is a Test
- Belief in the Angels
- Belief in the Last Day & Hereafter
- The Shariah
- Sunni & Shi'ah Islam

- Purpose of Life & Justice
 - The Rights of the Parents
 - The Correct Hijab
 - Stories of the Female Companions
 - Halāl & Harām
 - The Dangers of social media
1. Students will need a Gmail (Google email) account. Once you've set it up, please email me from the Gmail account with your full name.
 2. Lesson Format: I intend to use "Google Meet" and "Google Classroom" to conduct the classes. Please take time to familiarise yourselves with both. Don't worry too much if you cannot grasp it immediately, I will help you along.
 3. Assignments (if you choose to do them) will be submitted via Google Classroom.
 4. Students will need to have regular access to a laptop or desktop computer for use in lessons and for submitting assignments. Students must be in a quiet space free from distractions.
 5. Headphones are mandatory so that my voice is heard by the student only. I will not accept the excuse that there are just women in the room or that earphones are unavailable/broken. If this happens, I will ask the student to leave the lesson until they have earphones/headphones.

6. Students need a camera so I can check they are engaged and paying attention to the lesson; this is also mandatory. If the camera is not switched on students will not be permitted into the lesson.

7. Students will be able to communicate with me and ask questions relevant to the class during and after the lesson (within an allotted time). Students will also have access to me via WhatsApp or a telegram group for occasional questions and clarifications (inshā'-Allāh). Any questions I am unable to answer I will forward to Shaikh Abu Khadeejah and although I cannot always guarantee a response, I will try my best whenever possible to get one. Parents of younger students are welcome to access and view these conversations.

8. All lessons will be conducted in English, so Arabic is not a requirement.

9. The first 3-month payment should be made immediately upon applying. Subsequent payments should be made at least 7-days before each three-month session begins. You will be notified when the payment is due. Any delay in payment may result in denial of access to the classes. You will not be charged for holidays or tutor absences. If I am travelling or occupied, I will re-arrange the class day/time to one that is still over the weekend (Saturday/Sunday), inshā'-Allāh.

10. The fee is £150 (GBP) for three months per student (based on 4 hours per month), to be paid in advance. Please add the student's name as the reference and the code '9Fem' (e.g., Amatullah Khan: 9Fem) alongside your payment—that allows us to track the source of all payments. You can save your payment receipts directly when you pay, so will not require a separate receipt from us. We accept payments from all over the world. Note there are no refunds for student absences, but students can leave the course at any time—so if you decide to leave, it makes sense to leave at the end of three months to make the most of your paid course because there will be no refunds once payment is made.
